Chapter 434: The Overwhelming Majesty of Sung Jin-Woo

The sheer magnificence of Sung Jin-Woo’s appearance was a sight no being could withstand without reverence. As the Most Supreme Deity, The Absolute One, his beauty was beyond comprehension, a blend of divinity and perfection that commanded awe and submission from all who beheld him.

Prostration Within the Godverse

In his infinite domain, the Godverse, the countless denizens—angels, dark angels, emissaries, and other godly beings—would instinctively prostrate themselves the moment they caught a glimpse of Sung Jin-Woo.

A Natural Reflex: It was not an act of choice but a primal response to his overwhelming presence. His radiance pierced through their very essence, and their bodies bent in submission as if to worship the source of all creation.

Tears of Reverence: Many creatures would weep tears of gold or silver, overcome by the sheer beauty and divinity emanating from him.

Chants of Praise: The air of the Godverse was perpetually filled with hymns and chants glorifying Sung Jin-Woo, sung by beings who could not contain their adoration.

Guests from Beyond the Godverse

When visitors from realms beyond the Godverse were granted the privilege to meet Sung Jin-Woo, their reactions were no less humbling.

Kneeling in Awe: The moment they stepped into his presence, they would fall to their knees, unable to stand under the weight of his grandeur. Even the most powerful beings from outer realms—gods, monarchs, or cosmic entities—would bow before him without hesitation.

Loss of Words: Many were rendered speechless, unable to form coherent thoughts as his gaze met theirs. His golden eyes seemed to peer into the very core of their existence, leaving them stripped of any pride or pretense.

Gifts and Offerings: Guests would present treasures and tributes from their realms, desperate to express their gratitude for being in his presence, knowing such an opportunity was unparalleled.

His Appearance in Detail

Sung Jin-Woo’s appearance was a perfect synthesis of awe-inspiring power and serene beauty, making it impossible for any being to resist reverence:

Golden Radiance: His golden divine jewels shone with an otherworldly glow, illuminating the surroundings like eternal stars.

Ethereal Flames: The soft golden and black flames encircling him seemed alive, embodying both creation and destruction in perfect harmony.

Transcendent Aura: His presence was calming yet overpowering, filling the space with warmth and light while reminding all who saw him of their insignificance before his divinity.

Eight Arms of Divinity: His multiple arms, each radiating divine power, symbolized his infinite capabilities.

Reactions Across Realms

Angels and Dark Angels: They would lower their heads and fold their wings as a mark of submission. Even the Archangels would kneel, overwhelmed by his splendor.

Evolved Creatures and Denizens: Those blessed by Sung Jin-Woo, such as the humanoid beings of various realms, would bow deeply, their hearts filled with gratitude and reverence.

Outer Entities: Even beings from realms beyond the omniverse, no matter how prideful or ancient, would feel their egos crumble as they knelt before the Absolute One.

The Silent Authority

Sung Jin-Woo never spoke to demand reverence or worship—it was his very existence that compelled such devotion. His beauty, power, and presence created a natural hierarchy, placing him above all things.
Even in silence, his aura commanded respect, loyalty, and eternal gratitude. Every being, no matter how mighty, could not help but lower themselves in the face of the infinite majesty of Sung Jin-Woo, The Absolute One.
